8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND OWNERSHIP

All Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as granting, either expressly or by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, any license, right, title, or interest in or to any patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, or other intellectual property right of the Disclosing Party, except the limited right to use the Confidential Information solely for the Permitted Purpose. The Receiving Party shall not reverse engineer any hardware or software containing the Confidential Information. Accordingly, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, specific performance, and other equitable remedies to prevent or restrain a breach, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond. The Receiving Party shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Disclosing Party from and against all losses, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising directly from any breach of this Agreement by the Receiving Party or its Representatives. These indemnification obligations shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

This Agreement does not obligate either Party to enter into any business relationship, joint venture, transaction, or further agreement with the other Party. Either Party may terminate discussions regarding the Permitted Purpose at any time, for any reason or no reason, without any liability to the other Party, subject only to the surviving confidentiality obligations set forth herein.

12. NON-SOLICITATION

During the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, neither Party shall, directly or indirectly, solicit for employment, hire, or engage any employee or contractor of the other Party with whom it had material contact in connection with the Permitted Purpose. However, this restriction shall not apply to general recruitment advertising not specifically targeted at the other Party's employees, or the hiring of individuals who independently approach a Party for employment without any prior solicitation.

13. PUBLICITY

Neither Party shall make any public announcement, press release, or other public disclosure regarding the existence of this Agreement, the nature of the discussions between the Parties, or the content of the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the other Party, except as strictly required by applicable law or stock exchange regulations.

This Agreement and all matters arising out of or relating to it shall be governed by, construed, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, shall first be subject to good faith negotiation between senior executives of the Parties for a period of thirty (30) days. If the dispute remains unresolved, it shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC Rules). The arbitral tribunal shall consist of a sole arbitrator appointed in accordance with the ICC Rules. The seat and venue of the arbitration shall be New Delhi, India, and the language of the arbitration shall be English. The arbitral award shall be final and binding. Each Party shall bear its own costs, except that the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and arbitration costs.

16. ASSIGNMENT

Neither Party may assign or transfer this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate or in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets, provided that the assignee assumes all obligations under this Agreement in writing. Any attempted assignment in violation of this clause shall be null and void.

17. AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

This Agreement may only be amended, modified, or supplemented by a written instrument signed by the authorized representatives of both Parties. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege. A waiver of any breach shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

18. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The Parties agree to negotiate in good faith to modify the invalid provision to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid and enforceable while preserving the original intent of the Parties.
